Psychology of Learning

July 2026- Assignment Week-04

TYPE OF QUESTION: MCQ/ MSQ

Number of questions: 10

---

1) ___ thinking is the ability to create mental representations of objects, places, events, or people in your mind.

   A. General
   B. Creative
   C. Divergent
   D. Symbolic

   Ans. D= Symbolic

   Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.03) for better understanding.

2) We compare new information to our ___ of the person, place, or thing, so we know how to categorize the new information mentally.

   A. protofit
   B. protobite
   C. prototype
   D. none of the given

   Ans. C= prototype

   Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.04) for better understanding.

3) Which of the following is not true?

A. Thinking is a higher mental process
B. Thinking is a sub-vocal talking
C. Thinking is fulfilling a need or problem solving
D. Thinking is only done in verbal symbols

Ans. D= Thinking is only done in verbal symbols

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.6) for better understanding.

4) Mental images are ___.

A. Auditory
B. Visual
C. Gustatory
D. All of the given

Ans. D= All of the given

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.07) for better understanding.

5) ___ organize complex phenomena into simpler, easily understandable, and usable categories and help to solve our problems.

A. Concepts
B. Propositions
C. Constructs
D. Components

Ans. A= Concepts

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.08) for better understanding.

6) The lowermost level of Bloom's taxonomy is ___.

A. remember
B. apply
C. understand
D. analyze

Ans. A= remember

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.13) for better understanding.

7)
The psychomotor domain of the Bloom's taxonomy is concerned with ___.

A. Biological makeup
B. Thoughts and beliefs
C. Feelings and emotions
D. Skilled behavior

Ans. D= Skilled behavior

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.17) for better understanding.

8)

Which of the following is an example of meta-cognition skills?

A. Ignoring your limits
B. Self-monitoring
C. Skimming all important information
D. All of the given

Ans. B= Self-monitoring

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.24) for better understanding.

9)

___ critical thinking skill helps you analyze and process information to come to an unbiased conclusion.

A. Open-mindedness
B. Self-regulation
C. Self-control
D. Observation

Ans. A= Open-mindedness

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.32) for better understanding.

10)

The inspiration phase of the creative thinking process refers to the ___ stage.

A. Incubation
B. Insight
C. Evaluation
D. Preparation

Ans. D= Preparation

Solution: Please go through lecture notes of week-4 (slide no.51) for better understanding.

*END*******